

STUDENT WELL-BEING

Uncover attitudes toward student well-being in the following areas: relationship skills, responsible decision-making, self-awareness, self-management, and social awareness. This survey is designed for secondary students.

Survey results are displayed on the dashboard in the following categories: Self-Awareness, Social Awareness, Self-Management, Relationship Skills, and Responsible Decision-Making. Each questions follows a 4-point scale: 1 = Very Difficult to 4 = Very Easy.

By viewing data in the Student Well-Being Survey Dashboard, you can identify changes in opinions from each survey cycle, compare results among buildings and departments, and identify areas in need of the most attention.

The sample set below comes from the Student Well-Being Survey

- Knowing when my feelings are making it hard for me to focus.
- Learning from people with different opinions than me.
- Finishing tasks even if they are hard for me.
- Doing my schoolwork even when I do not feel like it.
- Respecting a classmate's opinions during a disagreement.
- Thinking about what might happen before making a decision
- Being patient even when I am really excited.
- Getting through something even when I feel frustrated
- Getting along with my classmates
- Knowing what people may be feeling by the look on their face